

UNESCO Chair for Legal Dimensions of Clean Sport, NLU Delhi

presents

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN SPORTS LAW & SAFE SPORT PRACTICES

ABOUT THE COURSE

In today's rapidly changing sports landscape, law and governance are vital for ensuring fair play, integrity, and athlete safety. With the adoption of the National Sports Governance Act, 2025, and the growing need for professional dispute resolution in sports, understanding sports law is no longer optional; it is essential.

This one-credit certificate course offers a unique blend of academic depth and practical industry insights. The course spans two weekends and comprises four focused modules.

- ✔ One-Credit Course (16 hours).
- ✔ Four Thematic Modules taught across two weekends.
- ✔ Modules to be taught by Sports Law Academicians & Sports Lawyers.

Each module concludes with a

- ✔ mandatory self-assessment to reinforce learning and ensure active participation.

A final evaluation at the end of the

- ✔ course will determine eligibility for the Certificate in Sports Law & Safe Sport Practices.

Open to students, athletes,

- ✔ administrators, coaches, and professionals

WHO CAN APPLY?

Law Students & Researchers, Practicing Lawyers & Arbitrators, Athletes, Coaches & Sports Administrators, and Sports Enthusiasts & Policy Professionals.

CERTIFICATION

All participants will receive a Certificate of Completion, to be awarded by the UNESCO Chair for Legal Dimensions of Clean Sport at NLU Delhi, provided they successfully complete all module-wise self-assessments and the final evaluation.
